

Installation Manager

Solarshield Home Improvement is a nationally recognized home remodeling company headquartered in Altoona, Pennsylvania. The company is seeking a qualified individual to operate in a hands-on technical role focused in the companies' doors, windows, bathrooms and metal roofs departments. This position manages the technical measuring, warehouse ordering, and instillation of material as well as servicing of current and new clients. Priority is to insure Homeowner satisfaction and deliver a seamless installation process. This position is based out of Altoona, Pennsylvania.

Qualified candidates will possess:

- Detail oriented technical knowledge involving home construction & remodeling
- Disciplined and responsible work ethic with a strong desire to succeed
- Reliable; able to work both independently and in a team atmosphere
- Excellent verbal and communication skills while working with customers and coworkers
- A minimum of 3 years work experience in home improvement or closely related field
- A valid PA state issued drivers license

Additional Responsibilities:

- Homeowner satisfaction is our number one priority; our goal is to exceed their expectations!
- Technical measuring, warehouse ordering, and accurate instillation of material
- Correspond with Sales team to assure process and installation efficiencies
- Stay up to date on all regulatory and certified installer 'best practices' as advised by Solarshield

This is a full-time salary position with weekly bonus's to be determined based upon candidates experience and background. Base salary to be negotiated between $40,000 and $50,000 year. Please apply with a resume and a brief cover letter detailing your qualifications and interests in this position.

Required experience:

- Home improvement industry: 2 years minimum

Required license or certification:

- Valid Pennsylvania Driver's License

Please direct inquiries and applications to BAnderson@AtlanticBBN.net